

Online Donation Policy

Purpose

El Roi Digital Ministries accepts financial contributions to support its religious and charitable mission.

This policy ensures transparency, integrity, and responsible stewardship of donated funds.

Tax-Exempt Status

El Roi Digital Ministries operates as a nonprofit organization pursuing recognition under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Donations may be tax deductible to the extent allowed by law once tax-exempt status is confirmed.

Use of Funds

Donations may be used to support:

- ministry operations
- digital outreach programs
- teaching resources and curriculum
- technology development
- mission initiatives
- administrative expenses necessary for ministry operations

Restricted Donations

If donors designate funds for a specific purpose, the ministry will make every reasonable effort to honor that designation.

However, the Board of Directors retains final authority over all financial decisions.

Online Donation Policy

Refund Policy

Donations are considered voluntary gifts and generally cannot be refunded, except in cases of verified error.

Security

The ministry will use reasonable measures to protect donor information and financial data when accepting online contributions.

Adoption

This policy was reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors through electronic approval in the official Board Portal.

The finalized approval record is maintained electronically.
